

01 04 2009

www.propertyowneruk.co.uk

Terms and conditions

It is a clear condition of using this website and instructing our tracing service that you have no unlawful intent in sourcing information.

We will supply a land registry record to you at your nominated and supplied e mail address or you can ask for a copy to be sent to your address by normal post the following day after we receive the public record from the general records office and obtain a certificate of posting . That proof of posting is accepted by you that the public record has been posted and no claim for non receipt can be made by the client (you) You can have the record posted to you by special next day delivery at a further cost of £ 3 if requested prior to posting.

All refunds minus our search fee £ 7 will be made within 3 days of failing to recover or identify a requested record upon initial payment method.